Boutique by Classic Collection

Stay perfectly on trend by checking into one of our beautifully unique, luxury boutique hotels. With fewer rooms you'll discover a world of matchless personal service, attention to detail, a wonderful design aesthetic and a chance to be closer to the heart of things.

Boutique properties combine bags of personality and charm with all the whistles and bells you might associate with larger hotels. There's no fear of missing out here: for the best of both worlds, relax and unwind amidst the home from home luxuries of our intimate boutique hotels.

We also feature a selection of boutique sailing options for a more exclusive and intimate cruising experience. Smaller craft enjoy access to the more secluded coastal areas, narrower waterways and smaller ports that larger vessels simply cannot reach.

Enjoy days at sea, swimming stops in beautifully secluded bays and onshore visits where you'll see fewer people and more of the destination. And with fewer passengers and crew, everyone has a better opportunity to get to know one another, to exchange stories over dinner, strike up conversations on the pool deck and share experiences and friendships with like-minded travellers that can last far beyond the end of a holiday.
